LA AIROSA EDITORIAL STAFF

Lucille Durrett, editor-in-chief; Sara McEachern, class editor;Leonard Jansen, feature editor; Eunice McClain, art editor. Leonard trims, Eunice draws, Jessamine runs errands, Lucille bosses; June and Sara check spelling; Ernest outlines and Tom letters; Kent is invisible, but invaluable. (All work done in a little hole-in-the-wall called the annual office.) Editorial Sponsor: Miss Chapman; Assistant editors: June Fox, Jessamine Grimes, Kent Barnard, Thomas Montgomery, Ernest Grider.

A. H. S.

A. H. S.! Oh, A. H. S.!
We'll sing your praise tonight,
To let you know where'er we go
For Black and Gold we'll fight.
We'll sing your worth o'er all the earth—
Of schools you are the best.
In books of fame we'll write your name,
Oh, A. H. S.

A SENIOR'S FAREWELL

Four years have passed!—Are these fond memories true,
Or but my own illusion of the gloriousness of you?
Of warm, light-hearted laughter
that echoes in your halls
And in vain entreats us to remain where comradeship enthralls?

Days filled with happy learning,
years, with fellowship,
Pass slowly here before me, as memory's wine I sip.
I see our study hall, where,
behind our history books,
We talk of love and football, and
of how the teacher looks.

Will you remember how we cheered
our champion team to win,
And watch the Sandies battle through to victory again?
No swarm of surly Sampsons, or Hercules could hold
Our boys from plodding goalward, led by your Black and Gold.

And now, dear school, the band strikes up
that fond, familiar tune;
Your song we sing this last time now—
we part, you know, come June.
And as we stand bareheaded, our brimming eyes caress
The memory-waking scenes you hold—
Farewell, A. H. S.

A TOAST TO THE JUNIORS

And here's to the class of '39!
They've just one year to wait,
Till they can don their caps and gowns,
And say in tones sedate,
"Here! You lowly junior!
Fetch my books I pray thee!
Nor let fierce beast, or hurricane,
Or tardy bell delay thee!"

They hand the sophs their well-worn books
And reach for higher things,
Like playing kiddy for a day,
The senior play, and rings.
The path ahead may not be clear,
They know, but they don't worry.
If everything seems rosy now,
They say, "Well, heck, why hurry?"

A TOAST TO THE SOPHOMORES

And let's all salute the soph,
As our box-like caps we doff
To this struggling, ever-striving child of woe.
He has two years before him
Till he leaves this roof that's o'er him,
And attempts to make his place in Fame's full row.

He has no time to look
Past the margin of his book
As he bends his curly noggin and prepares
To acquire as much smart knowledge
As a senior fresh from college,
And to run high school as grandly
as he dares.

STUDENT CONGRESS

L. McNeill, Sponsor

J. B. Linn, president; P. A. Quarles, vice-president; Elizabeth Sears, secretary; Jane Parris, parliamentarian; Bill Thompson, sergeant-at-arms.

The Student Congress is composed of the president and one other officer from each advisory group; five other members are elected from the student body at large. The purpose of the organization is to allow the students to participate in the government of the school. Various problems are discussed, and much constructive work has been done this year. Of particular interest is the adoption of a school seal and a standardized ring. Both teachers and students feel that there is a definite place for such an organization in the school.

SPANISH CONTEST

Each year a contest in second year Spanish is sponsored by the Llano Estacado chapter of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish. While this is not a part of the Interscholastic League, the contests are held at the same time and same place. Each town in the district is allowed to enter three students in the regional meet. The winners of first, second, and third places of that meet represent the region in the district contest. The purpose of the contest is to determine the best all around Spanish students; consequently the candidates are tested in various phases of the work. The contest this year consisted of tests in grammar, dictation, and original composition. Those entering from Senior High School this year were Thelma Jean Lawrence and Bill Stover. Last year A. V. Bryan won first place in the district.

LATIN TOURNAMENT

For several years an outstanding activity in the Latin department has been the Latin Tournament. This contest has two distinct divisions, essays and tests. Winners in both are announced at the banquet held at the end of the day on which tests are given. Last year, Amarillo was honored in having a State winner in the essay division; Helen Conrad rated first on her essay in third year Latin. This year's contest was held in Wellington, April 2.

Those representing the Senior High in the tests were: Fourth year: Helen Conrad and Jean Duniven; Second year: Dorris Collie and Jo Ann Aldridge; First year: Maurine Dickerson and Betty Beryl Bush.

Those entering essays were: Helen Conrad, fourth year; Dorothy Lee Howze, second year; Phyllis Aldridge, first year.

SPEECH TOURNAMENT

Each year the Speech Department of our school sponsors a tournament in which contests are conducted in debate, extemporaneous speaking, declamation, dramatic reading, humorous reading, and interpretation of poetry; loving cups are awarded to the schools winning first places in these events.

This year the tournament was held on March 26, 1938, under the direction of Miss Cornelius. Two hundred and fifty students and coaches representing thirty Panhandle schools participated.

The following students represented Amarillo High School in the various events: Debate: Ann Claire Brannen, Winston Brown, Helen Conrad, Raymond Geer, Jim Glenn, Raymond Goodrich, Sterling Johnson, and G. W. Reynolds; Extemporaneous speaking: Billy Ferguson and Marjorie Owens; Declamation: Jessamine Grimes, Henry Seaman, Mary Stack, and Billie Mack West; Readers: A. V. Features

On February 11, 1938, "La Airosa" presented the first Popularity Ball in Amarillo High School. The purpose of the Ball was to announce the winners of the class favorites contests which had been held the week before.

Pictures of the winners are on the following pages. Runners-up, who were also honored at the dance, were Irma Jean Byrd, Thelma Houston, Jean Florey, Owen Moore, J. B. Linn, and Raymond Goodrich, seniors; Mary Taylor Ball, Martha Gene Williams, Jane Parris, Eddie Storseth, Pat Humphreys, and Brien Dillon, juniors; and Dean Reed, Ida Lou Nisbett, Florence Neely, Joanne Ludden, Kenneth Wheatley, Estel Etheridge, and Gayle Spann, sophomores.

Highlights of the evening were the "Big Apple" contest, won by Pinkey Patton and R. L. Pendergraft, and the waltz contest, won by Dick Mayer and Margaret Cannon Boyce, of Central Junior High.

Decorations carried out the Valentine motif, and music for the dance was furnished by Bill McEachern's swing band.

I'M SOMEBODY

By Jack Rogers (with apologies to Emily)

I'm somebody, who are you?
Are you the same as me?
Then don't you tell, or I'll be forced
To chase you up a tree.
(I know the last line is lousy, teacher, but it was the best I could do.)

WHO ARE YOU?

An Englishman, according to legend, gets three laughs from a joke—first, when the joke is told; second, when it is explained to him, and third, when he understands it. The Frenchman gets only the first two—he never sees the point. The American gets one—he won't wait for the point. And the American girl, of course, gets none at all, because she's heard the joke before.

LITTLE SUZY'S NEWSIES

September 25, 1937

Dear Madge,

I know you thought I'd never write, but I've been pretty busy getting back into the swing of school again. You know, the "Greasy Grind," or something.

The Sandies have played just two games this season—the second one this afternoon—and they have won both of them. Some stuff! The pessimists tried to tell us that we didn't have a team this year, but we knew the Sandies wouldn't let us down.

The Tri-State Fair has been here for the last week, and I'm getting sick of it. Monday afternoon I went with a bunch of kids (we had the afternoon off), Tuesday nite with Bill, Thursday nite with Bill, Gene, and Murky, and last nite with some pep squad kids. It was just after pep rally and we all had on our pep squad suits. We really had a good time. One young man told us that he was a Sandie about seven years ago, and of course that meant a lot to us. Seven years ago, I thought Sandies were little Scotchmen.

Write soon and tell me the news.

Love to all from all,
Suzy.

October 30, 1937

Dear Madge,

Everybody here is planning to celebrate Halloween tonight because tomorrow's Sunday. Murky's giving a big shin-dig tonight and I was just on the verge of getting ready, but just had to stop a minute and write you about the goings-on here.

Last night the Sandies played in Plainview and walked off with a 39-0 score. (They're making up for that 33-0 loss at Port Arthur last week. It really knocked the whole town for a row of black-eyed peas, but it's O. K. now). Our pep squad spelled "Hello" with colored flashlights and it sure went over keen. The Sandies beat a couple of Oklahoma teams this month. I just guess we're plenty good.

Really do like school—fancy that from me! Say, you remember J. B. Linn, don't you? Well, he's our senior president. The day when campaign speeches were made for class officers in assembly, each candidate got up on the stage and made a speech. But when they called on J. B., he didn't come out on the stage. Just when everyone was getting kinda worried, a blare of music struck up in the hall and in marched J. B. escorted by several perspiring young gentlemen bearing placards on which the names of J. B.'s opponents were written. Mr. Linn, wearing a red wig and stuff, was being pulled in a little red wagon. While his little band played "Stars and Stripes Forever," he screeched out his humble message to the crowd. He was really a scream! (and so did the student body). Ha, ha!

Yesterday I was tearing through the typing room wastebasket, hunting for a valuable lesson I had thrown away, and I came across a masterpiece of an essay that had been written by some bright spot in the school—even little brother Habbakuk couldn't have done so well. It's enclosed.

Well, so long. Gotta go jump in the tub 'cause it's 7:30.

Love t. a. f. a.,
Suzy

Dear Madge,

I have a lot to tell you, but I'll try to condense it, because I have to study tonight. We have to go back to school tomorrow from our glorious Thanksgiving holidays.

We have been doing a lot at school during the past few weeks. We elected a school queen this year at the regular class officers' election, and the coronation ceremony was held in assembly in the first week of November—the fifth, I think. In the last few years, the queen has been crowned at a football game, and with not much ceremony; but this year they really did it up brown, with ladies-in waiting, etc. Very elaborate and beautiful. Thelma Houston is the queen, and she wore a lovely dress of gold metallic cloth or something.

We played Pampa on Armistice Day, and maybe you think it wasn't exciting! The Sandies made two touchdowns, but they were both called back. At the middle of the fourth quarter, the score was still 0-0. Then in the last minute or two of play, Bill Thompson threw a pass across the goal line to C. W. Kelley. The crowd really went wild. Just a few seconds later, the game ended with the score 6-0.

The night before the Pampa game we had another pep rally at the Capitol theater. Mr. Barnum, the manager, has been letting us do that often. After pep rally we stay to see the show.

We also beat Lubbock on Thanksgiving and that made us district champions. The Sandies are really going to town this year; they're doing especially well for a team that was predicted not to have anything.

Well, so much for tonight.

Love to all from all,
Suzy.

Dear Madge, December 30, 1937

Are you going to ring the old year out and all that tomorrow night? We had a swell Christmas, but no snow. We got twelve days off to celebrate and then to uncelebrate (if you get what I mean.). I got a book from C. L. named "How to Get Your Man and Hold Him." Such wit!

A. H. S. presented the Childrens' Home with the traditional 1,000 cans (only we had more) the last day of school before we were turned out. The Sandies had their annual banquet and dance the 20th at the Country Club. Our paper, The Sandstorm, ran a two-page photograph issue for Christmas—you know, pictures of kids and stuff.

Well, the 1937 Sandies played their last game December 4 in Wichita Falls because they got beaten. It was the bi-district game and we all thought we did swell to go that far—you remember what the sport writers said about our team at the first of the season. 'Course we hated to lose, but the band, pep squad, and team had a keen trip, especially coming home. The special left there about 6:30 and we got home about 1:00 a. m. The football boys came back in the pep squad cars and we all sang and cut up. We all teased Harry (you know Harry Townsley, don't you?) about making our only score while he was "out on his feet." He was really a hero. Some kids from the band came and started playing in one end of a pep squad car. Everyone (including Moco) stood on the seats and sang for all he was worth. I got kind of a tight feeling in my throat when the car rocked with "A. H. S." We nearly died when Bill Thompson got up on a seat and sang "The Martins and the Coys."

Anyhow, the new captains (for the '33 Sandies) have been chosen. Bill Thompson and Gerald Hastons are the ones. We also elected three new pep leaders, Mary Lucille Doche, Kathryn Farwell, and Grace Rogers, to fill the vacancies to be left by the graduating leaders. Everyone turns out for the Sandie basketball games now and it really is a swell sport. For a while I was afraid football had put all the other sports in the shade, but I guess it hasn't.

At noon most of the kids go into the gym and dance to the nickelodeon. Everyone wants to play "The Dipsy Doodle." We have tea dances almost every Thursday afternoon and they are lots of fun.

I'm sending you a copy of the picture of me that's going in the La Airosa.

Be sure to write soon. Habbakuk sends his love.

Dear Madge,

Well, I'm all registered for the new semester now. I took my last exam the 20th and that finished me for last term. (Nearly finished me forever). We got our report cards yesterday and stuff.

Today the Hi-Y boys sold student directories for a nickel and all the first string Sandies have already signed mine. They have the names, addresses, and phone numbers of all the kids in A. H. S. and Junior College in them. Really presh.

By the way, you wrote that your history class had to study President Roosevelt's speech to Congress on January 5th. Well, our whole student body sat in the auditorium and listened to it over the radio. A local merchant furnished the radio. Gipsy Smith, that great evangelist, talked in our assembly on January 4. He preached at the Municipal Auditorium every night for two weeks. Just gobs of people were turned away every night because of a packed house. Be sure to hear him if he ever comes to your town to talk.

A Student Congress has been organized in A. H. S. The president and one other officer from each advisory room belong. The purpose of this organization is to represent the students in making rules and regulations in the school. Pretty keen idea, don't you think? J. B. Linn is president.

Exams were finished Thursday, as I said, and that night the pep squad had its annual banquet at the Amarillo Hotel Coffee Shop. Afterwards we had a dance at the Elks Club and really had fun.

Write and tell me how your dance turned out.

Dear Madge,

My arm aches as a result of my first tennis game of this spring. I played all afternoon yesterday. The courts are just packed since this warm spring weather has set in.

There have been big goings-on in A. H. S. "La Airosa" sponsored a popularity election and then had a big dance in the gym to announce the winners. More fun! We got a holiday March 9 for Mother-in-Law Day, and went down and took in the huge parade and crowds. Got a good look at the President's wife, too.

The '37 Sandies got their letters in assembly February 17 and they sure look snazzy. Reserves received "A's" with "Reserve" written under it. Bill and I went to several of the school boxing matches and I was surprised to see how many people turned out for them. Brother Habby tagged along but I didn't mind—much. The music classes and glee clubs gave the operetta, "Bon Voyage," last Friday nite.

Write soon.

Dear Madge,

Well, it won't be long now. We had Kid Day last week and more fun. Everyone had a camera taking everyone else's picture. The teachers went crazy, in the superlative degree.

But really, when I stop to think that it sure enough won't be long till I'll be leaving, it kinda makes me sorta blue, or something. I'm getting to where I rather like ye old institution. (I would wait till my last semester to get that feeling. It probably would have done me more good when I was a soph or a junior.) Habbakuk will come right along and history will repeat itself again.

All the seniors are wearing rings now—they have our standardized school seal on them this year and are really pretty. Some of the seniors are wearing awfully worried looks, too—it's almost exam time for them, you know.

This has been a swell school year and lots of improvements have been brought into the school.

Write me about your graduation exercises.

"Now, students," said Miss Luther, "the world novelette means 'a short tale.' You may now write in your notebooks a sentence containing the word."

A few minutes later she picked up Earl Christian's effort, and read aloud: "Yesterday I saw a fox terrier running down our street with a tin can tied to his novelette."

GREETINGS FROM AMARILLO BAR ASSOCIATION

The average citizen of Amarillo takes great pride in our Public School System because he feels that it is the most efficient agency for the diffusion of useful information, the best means for developing the mental, spiritual, and physical resources of each individual, and is the most sustaining force that perpetuates the type of civilization we call representative democracy.

Believing that this conception of Public Education is forcefully exemplified in Amarillo and fully justified in the personnel of the present and past graduating classes, the Amarillo Bar Association offers its sincere congratulations to the officers, faculty, and students of Amarillo Public Schools.

AMARILLO BAR ASSOCIATION

A SONG TO HER

"Every night she's out to meet me;
What a sight to see her greet me
When my daily work is ended, as she knows;

For she's waiting in some by-way
As I'm stepping down the highway
You should see the animation in her pose.

Speeding up to quickly face her,
I am tempted to embrace her—
Prospects of another meeting makes me jog;

I'm so glad she's thinking of me—
Glad that she will always love me—
That's the way I feel about my dog."

COOPER
by Jack Rogers
(with apologies to Miniver Cheevy)

Robert Cooper, child of the ages,
Dreamed of the days when men were bold.
While supposedly scanning his text-book pages,
He was seeing the days of old.

In chemistry class he would sit by the hour,
Dreaming, holding his head in his hands;
He thought of the day when the sword was power
And he was the hero of all the lands.

Robert wished that he were there
And from the dragon, rough and tough,
He wished to rescue a maiden fair.
Aw shucks, teacher, ain't this enough?

Some of our novelists seem not to care what they do with their characters' eyes. For instance:
"Her eyes roamed carelessly 'round the room."
"With her eyes she riveted him to the spot."
"He tore his eyes from her face and they fell on the letter at her feet."
"Their eyes met for a long, breathless moment, and swam together."
"Marjory would often take her eyes from the deck and cast them far out to sea."
